IN DUNPHY CASE

SEEKS OTHER JUDGE THAN KINGSBURY

Woman Will Have Hearing Tomorrow, but No Favors, Commissioner Says.

"At its pest, the care of these unfortunates is depressing, and calls for the favors, no indulgence on acof long service, no pity on acof age or broken health. We garded as models, and that the island

In spite of Mr. Root's appeal to Mayor Mitchel for intervention to give Mrs. Dunphy trial before a retired justice of the Supreme Court. Commissioner Kingsbury has announced that there will be a hearing on the charges against her in his office to-morrow. Mrs. Dunphy is too ill to be present. Her lawyers may attend the hearing, but will not be permitted to cross-examine witnesses who testify against her.

Did You Get a Copy of The Sunday Tribune Yesterday?

A Wonderfully Interesting Issue

It was the occasion of the first number of the new GRAPHIC SECTION-8 pages of beautiful brown and green effects in Camera-Photogravure printed on special Gravure paper. And what a variety of subjects! A startling view of one of Uncle Sam's latest sea fighters in action, Easter subjects, selected war pictures, a double-page spread of levely Fashion creations, a series of views showing the musical instrument industry and an entire page of stage favorites. The whole an impressive demonstration of the perfection reached by the camera and printing press in combination.

The SPECIAL FEATURE SECTION more than measured up to its usual standard of attractiveness to the readers of The Sunday Tribune. Among the many articles found in its 8 pages of timely entertainment and information: Abandoning Bismarck's Principles-Saving Money at 'Frisco Fair-The Coming Constitutional Convention-Back to the Farm-Beautifying Vacant Lots-Lack of Weather News Imperils Germany-From Truck Boy to President of Big Concern.

A perfectly balanced Sunday issue that appealed to every member of the family.

The Sunday Tribune sold out early yesterday and many were disappointed. Perhaps you were among the number? To make certain that you get your copy next Sunday order from your newsdealer in advance to-day.
